

2010 Nomination Ballot

Nominations

Nominations may be made by an owner, supervisor, tenants, or co-worker. There is no charge to nominate a candidate for the Awards of Excellence. Individuals nominated for the Awards of Excellence must be an employee of an AASCW member company in good standing. Nominations for Leasing Representative of the Year, Maintenance Technician of the Year, Manager of the Year, and Team of the Year will be confirmed by the nominee's supervisor. Nominations for Property of the Year must be a member of AASCW and will be photographed. Winners are encouraged to add the Awards of Excellence logo to advertising, brochures, and other print media.

Judging & Recognition

Judging will be based on the information provided on the Official Nomination Form. Winners will be recognized at the Awards luncheon at the Radisson Hotel. Winners will also receive a crystal Award of Excellence, have their properties listed as featured property on Apartment Association website & be guests of the associations at a private luncheon for selected large owners & the finance industry. Throughout the year, AASCW will refer to the winners in promotional materials. Properties entered are secret shopped and the winning properties will receive a copy of the market shop report.
